It was the money she and her husband needed to live on for two months.
I THINK YOU UNDERSTAND NOW, HOW IMPORTANT THAT SUM OF MONEY IS!

But you are also my friend, and a human being.
It's true that you are a criminal.
I THINK THAT THERE IS SOMETHING ELSE THAT YOU HAVE TO DO, AS A HUMAN BEING, BEFORE YOU TURN YOURSELF IN!

Essay: "Be yourself" Part 11

by the Watchman

...to all the children whom he cherishes...

Children, are you capable of atoning for your mistakes?

Are you capable of erasing your past?

When we hurt somebody, asking for forgiveness is not enough to heal the wound that we caused them.

When we kill someone, no matter how long the prison sentence we serve is, the life lost will never return.

I know a boy who lived in poverty while enduring his father's abuse.

He was a kind boy, who helped the blind and the elderly taking out their trash. But he joined a biker gang, despite my objections. He tried to rob an old lady to obtain the money needed to buy a motorbike. The old lady fell hard onto the ground and passed away as a result.

He served a three years sentence in a juvenile detention centre. He has been working seriously for seven years since his release. He sends the majority of his salary to the husband of the old lady, but he has not received any letter or phone call in return.

He told me: "He will never forgive me. I killed the most important person to him, but I will continue, I will atone for my mistake."

I want to believe that even if a crime once committed can never be redeemed, he will one day be forgiven.

Please let the day come where the old man forgives him...

Children, think before you do even the smallest thing.

Is it something which you will never be ashamed of, which will let you walk with your head held high, which does not hurt anyone...?

Even if it is, and you still make a mistake, then...

You must continue to fix it, to offer your kindness, to do something for others.

Ten times more than the mistake made...

To ten times the number of people...

And the smile you receive in return, that is the atonement, the forgiveness that you are given.
